What is AgeWise?

AgeWise is a free and confidential counselling service available to support Tasmanians living in a Residential Aged Care Facility. AgeWise is supported by funding from Primary Health Tasmania and is delivered via Richmond Fellowship Tasmania.

AgeWise provides up to 10 counselling sessions per year, conveniently delivered in a private space at the persons Residential Aged Care Facility. Sessions can be delivered individually, in a group setting or through a combination of each.

How Can AgeWise Help Me?

AgeWise supports people through a range of challenges including grief and loss, depression, anxiety, loneliness, relationship issues and difficulties adjusting to significant life changes.

We recognise that every person is different, so our friendly clinicians take a person-centred approach to support the specific needs of each individual.

“Travelling along your journey, together”

How Can I Access AgeWise?

AgeWise can be accessed by anyone living in an eligible* Residential Aged Care Facility who is experiencing a mild to moderate mental health concern.

Anyone can make a referral to AgeWise. It is as simple as completing our referral form, which can be found on our website. Once we have received a completed referral form, a counsellor will be in touch.
